FROM THE RAPPAHANNOCK—FIRING BETWEEN GUNBOATS AND SUB ARTILLERY, ETC.

Richmond, Dec. 5.

Yankee gunboats proceeded up the Rappahannock river lately and their opposite Port Royal our forces opened upon them. Kershaw opened the fire. No further particulars.

Burnside seems to be following the occupation of his predecessor. He has taken to dashing on the other side of the Rappahannock in the most rapid manner various points for fear of falling on Lee there with a force small in the rear.

It has been raining luxuriously all day, which renders the roads impassable, and consequently renders every movement impracticable for many days.

FROM THE NORTH—YANKEE SPECULATIONS.

Charleston, Dec. 5.

Yesterday correspondents of the N. Y. Herald under date of 28th say the bombardment of Fredericksburg has been postponed for good reasons not to be mentioned. We state that from letters received in this city, dropped from the army of the Potomac have been sold off.

The Yankees have constructed a corduroy road from Aquia Creek to Stafford C. H., and built a railroad bridge over the Potomac.

The Philadelphia Inquirer observes editorially, that the army of the Potomac will win Richmond on the Rappahannock, but that the army of the James will occupy Richmond. The Herald shows the absurdity of this statement as displacing military forces to the rebels.

The Duncannon arrived Tow River situation on the 28th.

The trial of Fitz John Porter by court martial, and Bull Run McDowell by court of Enquiry, was progressing.

The Herald announces the abandonment of Holly Springs by the rebels. Grant's force occupied Huntsville. Rebel cavalry captured the town of Henderson on Mobile and Ohio railroad, burning Madison and capturing a Yankee company there.

BRIDGE BURNERS CAUGHT.

Lynchburg, Dec. 5.

Twenty-two bridge burners arrived here this evening on the Western train who were arrested in Georgia, charged with being engaged in burning bridges, &c.—They will leave for Richmond tomorrow.

RECONNOITRING SKIRMISH.—Three wounded men brought by the train from Weldon, also by the Norfolk and Petersburg Railroad yesterday afternoon, of a severe skirmish which took place at or near Franklin, on the Blackwater River, last Tuesday. It is stated that a portion of Dodge's New York Mounted Rifleman, encountered some of our cavalry and a portion of Capt. Wright's Rocket Battery. After a brisk engagement, which lasted seven hours or more, our men retired, losing one section of Wright's Battery, and 16 men, killed and wounded. The Yankee loss could not be ascertained, as they were left in possession of the field. It is stated, however, that two of their horses fell into our hands. The names of our killed and wounded, or the companies to which they are attached, we could not ascertain. Further particulars will probably reach us to day.—Petersburg Express of yesterday.

Gen. Holmes has issued an order giving notice that no officer or person other than those having authority from the Secretary of War, approved by him, would be allowed to recruit volunteers from Missouri.

NEGRO RAT SWINDLERS IN GEORGIA AND FLORIDA.

The Chicago Tribune has recently discovered the way [illegible] Negroes under Secretary Stanton's Bureau of Swindling.

The report made by the correspondent accompanying the abolition expedition to Georgia and Florida, gives the secret. The Negroes, who had any confidence or communication in the Yankees, were told that it was made by Abraham down to Beaufort, but the days of Washington Hunter, Hamilton Gamble and the days of Wat Lowndes Rawlins, Thomas Jefferson and Sam Houston, the succession of Abraham seems to be characterized by the meanness of Shylock gender to Judas. It was one thing to obtain information and devastation which has followed the footsteps of the Yankee in Missouri. It is another to obtain information from their masters and [illegible] of their slaves. There can be no justification of such conduct. The statements which preceded and the others who succeeded are causing a dissatisfaction yesterday. Negroes are restless, knowing their masters are [illegible] only recalled to rule, and the young priest who plotted this [illegible] and capable to communicate responses to the abolitionists. One of the Yankee philanthropists, located at Port Royal, [illegible] with the view that the priest was incapable of [illegible] the safety of the negro, takes the position of [illegible] Yankee. Such [illegible] of statements will shock [illegible] sympathizers; and his remarks executors, have exhibited their characteristic prudence in statements of this sort upon [illegible] inhabitants, made by stolen negroes, commanded by Government officers. If we are a Christian nation, and amenable to the laws recognized by enlightened and Christian governments, it is surely time that military, [illegible] and negro should cease in the conduct of this war.

A CHEAP METHOD OF CURING BACON.—At this time, when Salt is selling for three hundred dollars a sack, the following simple and cheap method of curing bacon (given by a citizen of Georgia,) may be worth trying:

I saw at the house of Mr. Wm Morton, a well [illegible] and respectable citizen of this place, good bacon, from a hog weighing two hundred and fifty pounds, killed last week, made by dipping it in boiling brine, hung and smoked immediately. The plan is simple and commendable for its economy of salt. Take a kettle or large pot nearly full of water, put in a little more salt than the water will dissolve, bring it to boil, cut up the meat, and while animal heat is in it put in the kettle and boil; from two to four minutes, according as the meat is thick or thin; rub on [illegible] to keep off the flies; then hang and smoke it. The brine must be kept up to its full strength by occasionally adding salt. When the work is done, the remaining brine may be boiled down and the salt saved for other use, or for the next killing.

Mr. Morton tells me he learned this plan from an old man forty years ago, who had used it for years previous. He has frequently tried it in the month of August with invariable success. Every one who hereafter tries will vouch for the truth of his assertion.

JUST SO.—An exchange says:

It used to be said that we had no mechanics in this country; but it can't be said now. The conscript act is working wonders in that respect; and then makers tanners, foundry-men, coopers, blacksmiths, wagon makers, mill-wrights, iron-makers, &c., are multiplying rapidly. And not less remarkable is the fact that mechanical occupations covered by the exemption act have suddenly attained a degree of respectability they have never possessed before in the estimation of some very clever people.—We shall soon be a community of artisans. The conscript act is certainly supplying the South with a great many useful mechanics, that would not have known anything about trade under any other circumstances—in short they would have been shocked if you had talked with them about such matters.

CONSCRIPTION.

THOUSANDS IN THE CONFEDERATE STATES, owing to the different laws and exemption bills passed by the last two sessions of the Confederate States Congress, are so mystified as to their real duties that they know not what concerns persons. We invite all who really believe themselves subject to the law to report immediately at the respective camps appointed for the enrollment of Conscripts in the different States. To those who believe themselves exempt, we would respectfully say, that we respecting one fee, which is Five Dollars, we will furnish them the law bearing on their cases and every additional information which we have gleaned from the action of the authorities in parallel cases, and we are prepared to take all the responsibility of such advice. We will do nothing but in LEGITIMATE Conflict. Those whom we find are really liable, we will inform accordingly. Those who are not (and these are thousands in every State who are not) we will give them our advice with the law bearing upon their cases.

Having every facility, we are prepared to give every information regarding any other business connected with the army.

Owing to the heavy expense incurred in procuring this information, we will notice no communication unaccompanied with our retaining fee of Five Dollars.
